

For Immediate Release
March 24, 2009

Contact: Mary Stamstad
608- 441-7897
mstamstad@rsvpdane.org

Dane County Education Network (DANE)
Citizen Advocacy Workshops

Want to broaden your horizons? Interested in knowing who the “powers that be” are and how you can contact them with your concerns and issues? Plan on attending two all day workshops on May 18th and 20th at Oakwood Village West, 6205 Mineral Point Rd., Madison, Wisconsin.

Learn:

- How Local Governments Operate
- Law Enforcement and Justice Systems Responsibilities
- School Funding for the Future
- Advocacy Opportunities
- Senior issues related to Health, Homelessness, Hunger, Nutrition, Falls and Financial Exploitation

Early Bird Registration: Seniors/ Individuals: $20 per day, or $35 for both days.

Agency Staff: $25 per day or $45 for both days.

After April 22, Seniors/ Individuals: $25 per day, or $45 for both days. Agency Staff: $30 per day or $55 for both days.

Limited scholarships are available for seniors. Continuing Education Units are available for Agency Staff.

These workshops are for persons of any age who are interested in learning how government works, and about important issues that affect older persons and the whole community. Participants will learn how to advocate and become more involved in their neighborhoods and communities.

For more information call 608-441-7897 or mstamstad@rsvpdane.org

*“Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter”
Martin Luther King, Jr.*